

ADULT LITERACY TUTOR

Share the Gift of Reading

Are you an adult over 18 years old with a passion for reading and a willingness to help those who struggle every day because they need better literacy skills? The Mountain View Public Library, in partnership with the Reading Program of the Santa Clara County Library, seeks volunteer tutors to help English-speaking adults improve their reading and writing. You will receive tutor training and support from our professional staff of literacy specialists.

Ready to hear more? Call (408) 262-1349 to sign up for one of our no-obligation tutor orientation sessions coming soon to the Mountain View Public Library and other library locations throughout Santa Clara County.
